DAY26

Girl, I know you got reservations
But I already made reservations
You think you'll only see me occasionally
If you give in, then come lay down with me tonight

I respect your intuition
But I can't let you keep that ass away from me, no, no
Meet me at my hotel, I pray that you don't bail

'Cause I already told my niggas to leave me at home
And stay out all night long
Why the hell you ain't picking up your phone?
Please don't leave me alone

'Cause I got reservations
Yeah
For wrappin' your legs 'round my head
And lovin' you 'til you can't stand
Girl, I got reservations
Baby
For body rockin', knockin' boots with you
Ain't no limit to the things I wanna do

Please don't keep me waiting
Promise tonight's gonna be amazing
Electric love like I'm Raiden
The clouds won't be the only thing that's raining
Oh baby

Girl, I respect your intuition
But I can't let you keep that ass away from me
Meet me at my hotel, I pray that you don't bail

'Cause I already told my niggas to leave me at home
