I'm not lonely
I say to the night sky without any strength
I'm okay today
I say to myself over and over again

After the day ends and I come back home
I wish there was someone
Who would tell me, good job
And hold me
And even now

I'm alone
Under the moonlight
I'm alone
Only the cold night air
Is by my side

Actually, I'm lonely
I hate the night sky that has no answer

When I leave
Tomorrow morning
I wish there was someone
Who would tell me, have a good day
And even now

I'm alone
Under the moonlight
I'm alone
Only the cold night air
Is by my side

That person I'm looking for
I'm sure that person
Is looking at the same night sky

I'm alone
Under the moonlight
I'm alone
Only the cold night air
Is by my side
