Where are you and what are you doing?
Who are you with today?
Out of all your countless plans
There is no place for the word "us"
When we're together
At the end of your gaze
Your phone screen gets the attention, not me
It hurts

I know, from the start
The one, who was chasing
Was me. The choice was mine

I thought things would get better
The more we met, but
Maybe I was wanting too much
Now I can't see the answer

It's the end of our world
It's over
I had hoped to see how far we'd go
The end, no more love
It's sad, but
It already was broken, our
Game over

You never say, "I love you"
I never got a "thank you"
What should I have done
For you to love me?

Maybe I was wanting too much
Now I can't see the answer

It's the end of our world
It's over
I had hoped to see how far we'd go
The end, no more love
It's sad, but
It already was broken, our
Game over

Love is dead
There's no revival
Now we gotta move on
Forever carrying only painful memories

It's the end of our world
It's over
I had hoped to see how far we'd go
The end, no more love
It's sad, but
It already was broken, our
Game over
