Tell me, it's okay to be happy

Will there be a day like that when it's all just good?
A day that makes me laugh
Without worrying about tomorrow
One by one, something happens
Will I ever be able to be truly happy?

Will there be a day like that when I find my dream?
A day makes me scream
I'm so happy to see the sky
Will there be a day like that
If I continue like this
If I keep holding out, one day

May I be happy?
I want to laugh every day
I don't want to worry
Please tell me the answer
So help me
I'm sitting down
I think I'm going to cry
So, please, please, please
Tell me, it's okay to be happy

Algorithms only apply to good people
It's coming up countless times

Will such a day come
If I continue like this
Someday, if I'm alive

May I be happy?
I want to laugh every day
I don't want to worry
Please tell me the answer
So help me
I'm sitting down
I think I'm going to cry
So, please, please, please
Tell me, it's okay to be happy

I just want to live simply and easily
What's wrong with my every day
It's surprisingly difficult

May I be happy?
I want to laugh every day
I don't want to worry
Please tell me the answer
So help me
I'm sitting down
I think I'm going to cry
So, please, please, please
Tell me, it's okay to be happy
