

Zombie

DAY6

Breathin' but I've been dyin' inside
Nothin' new and nothin' feels right
Dejavu so I close my eyes
Let the demon sing me a lullaby

Today's a present that I don't want
So I'm wonderin' in this world
Am I really the only one
Who's been wantin' to hide out from the sun
And run

When we live a life
Always dreamin' for a dream to come true
So I live this life
Wanting somethin' I can't see
And something I can't reach
Or somethin' that could not exist

I feel like I became a zombie
Not alive but I'm still walkin'
When the sunrise is upon me
I'll be waitin' for the day to pass by
Oh why

I became a zombie
And there's nothing that can cure me
So tomorrow I know I'll be
Just the same you'll see me
Wishin' to stop and close my eyes

Yeah this is my life
Always dreamin' for a dream to come true
This meaningless life
Wanting somethin' I can't see
And something I can't reach
Or somethin' that could not exist

I feel like I became a zombie
Not alive but I'm still walkin'
When the sunrise is upon me
I'll be waitin' for the day to pass by
Oh why

I became a zombie
And there's nothing that can cure me
So tomorrow I know I'll be
Just the same you'll see me
Wishin' to stop and close my eyes

No more of this I wanna cry
Dried out but feel like I should cry
Tell the world that I'm still here tonight
Oh oh

I feel like I became a zombie
Not alive but I'm still walkin'
When the sunrise is upon me

I'll be waitin' for the day to pass by
Oh why

I became a zombie
And there's nothing that can cure me
So tomorrow I know I'll be
Just the same you'll see me
Wishin' to stop and close my eyes
