

Agnostic

Daya

Maybe I
Overstayed
That summer day
Blood shot eyes
Crying all over your sunburnt shoulders

Held on tight
To every bit
Of your affection
When you were mine
What a time

Oh
I was in heaven
And never looking down
I wasn't ready, no

No matter what I do
It's never gonna be enough
I can never fall in love
With someone new
Praying never helped me much
Running out of faith
I had it then I lost it
Call that shit agnostic
Baby what'd you do

Baby what'd you do

Devoted til you cut me open
Now I can't feel the simplest emotion
Wish I had something to believe in
Just another lonely weekend
The way you touched me felt so holy
I can't let nobody hold me
Wish I had something to believe in

No matter what I do
It's never gonna be enough
I can never fall in love
With someone new
Praying never helped me much
Running out of faith
I had it then I lost it
Call that shit agnostic
Baby what'd you do

I've heard the stories of
A different kind of love
Maybe it wasn't us
And maybe there's another way
And when I'm in their arms
You'll still be pulling me away

No matter what I do

With someone new
Running out of faith
Baby what'd you do
(Baby what'd you do)

No matter what I do
With someone new
Running out of faith
I had it then I lost it
Baby what'd you do

Baby what'd you do
