

Everyday, nowadays
It's getting strange in different ways
You call me out from in a haze
I should've stayed home

I wish you would've come down, talk to me
I see you standing on that balcony, oh
I wish I did not just see that
Thought I would've thought to think it through
But it don't do that much when I look at you, oh
I wish I did not just do that

The death of me at 9:03
The smell of wine and casualty
I feel half deaf
What are you saying?
I'm just playing a show, you know

Oh, I wish you would've come down, talk to me
I see you standing on that balcony, oh
I wish I did not just see that
Thought I would've thought to think it through
But it don't do that much when I look at you, oh
I wish I did not just do that

I walked in through the door
You don't live here anymore

Oh, I wish you would've come down, come down, come
I wish you would've come down, talk to me
I wish you would've come down, come down, come
I wish you would've come down, talk to me
Talk to me, talk to me, come and talk to me
Come and talk to me, talk to me, talk to me
I wish you would've come down, talk to me
I see you standing right there
