

Cocoon

Dayglow

Oh, wake up Mr. Glow
We've got a long way to go
We've got a likely storm ahead of us
And it seems nobody knows
That the world's about to blow
In a cosmic reparation, listen to the megaphone

But if nothing ever happens
Then where'd you go?

'Cause time keeps moving on, it's moving on without you
And I stayed a little long, a little long in the cocoon
Who knew I could be so caught into it?
Caught into the rearview
To think what could've been, it isn't what it would come to
'Cause you outgrew, already gone
You're already gone

Something's happening
And it's the strangest mystery
When you were something else before it
Then you just go entirely
And erase the memory
Of everything you were before me, and everything that you had known

But if nothing ever happens
Then where'd you go?

'Cause time keeps moving on, it's moving on without you
And I stayed a little long, a little long in the cocoon
Who knew I could be so caught into it?
Caught into the rearview
To think what could've been, it isn't what it would come to
'Cause you outgrew, already gone
You're already gone

Nothing will ever be the way that it was again
Nothing will ever be the same
Nothing will ever be the way that it was again
Nothing will ever be the same

'Cause time keeps moving on, it's moving on without you
I stayed a little long, little long in the cocoon
Who knew I could be so caught into it?
Caught into the rearview
Oh, to think what could've been, it isn't what it would come to

Because time keeps moving on, it's moving on without you
And I stayed a little long, a little long in the cocoon
Who knew I could be so caught into it?
Caught into the rearview
And to think what could've been, it isn't what it would come to
'Cause you outgrew, already gone
