

Nothing Ever Does!!!

Dayglow

Finding myself
Stuck inside this cyclical game
Looking for somebody like me
Wishing things could stay the same
But nothing ever does, oh, ah, does

Ah, here it goes now
Once again it's happening
Losing every grip that I have
Absolutely spiraling

If I wait for the noise to die down and go home
Then I lose where the source of it is
And I need it

I'm finding myself
Stuck inside this cyclical game
Looking for somebody like me
Wishing things could stay the same
But nothing ever does, oh

Oh, here it goes now
Once again I'm rationing
Holdin' every grip that I had
Absolutely losing it again

If I wait for the noise to die down and go home
Then I lose where the source of it is
And I need it

I'm finding myself
Stuck inside this cyclical game
I'm looking for somebody like me
Wishing things would stay the same
But nothing ever does
Oh, oh-oh, oh
Nothing ever does

Nothing ever does
