

Run The World!!!

Dayglow

So pessimistic
So narcissistic
So cynical
Welcome to my own little world
A false commitment
Oh, I never listened
And I'm just a problem
And no one's ever solved it

Oh, I don't think that I could be the one that you want me to be
It's hard for me sometimes to see the light inside my love

I, I, I, I want to run the world
I, I, I, I want to run the
I, I, I, I, want to run the world, the world, the world, the world, the world
And I, I, I, I want to run the world
I, I, I, I want to run the
I, I, I, I, want to run the world, the world, the world, the world, the world

I'm never honest
I'm faking all this
Just point those fingers
'Cause I could never be hurt
I'm not what I say
Oh, I am so fake
Just an illusion
Props to your conclusions

And why is it that I believe everything they speak of me?
It's hard for me sometimes to see beyond all that they want

I, I, I, I want to run the world
I, I, I, I want to run the
I, I, I, I, want to run the world, the world, the world, the world, the world
And I, I, I, I want to run the world
I, I, I, I want to run the
I, I, I, I, want to run the world, the world, the world, the world, the world
I, I, I, I
I, I, I, I
I, I, I, I, want to run the world, the world, the world, the world, the world
I, I, I, I
I, I, I, I

I, I, I, I, want to run the world, the world, the world, the world
