

Trade Your Hands to the Devil

Days N' Daze

Oh little girl you can tell me anything
I just really gotta hear your pretty voice
Tonight 'cause it's all that'll make me feel alright woah oh oh

I'd trade my hands to the devil just to hold yours for one night little angel so
Won't you come and lie down by my side

I can't wait 'til I'm outta here
So I can hold your hands inside of mine
And tell you everything's alright woah oh oh

You could take me away
You could take me away-ay-ay-ay
You could take me far away from here woah oh oh

You are the only man I'll ever see
I'm always there for you
You're always there for me nothing can bring us down

I can't wait to get outta here
So I can hold your hands inside of mine
And tell me everything is alright whoah oh oh
