

Vent

Days N' Daze

Your a poison
A parasite
Your a broken rung
The ceiling the deadbolt
It's taken so long
For me to finally see
The person you are
And I have my vices
Yeah I have my flaws
I know I'm a fuck up
And I know I've been lost
But at least I admit it
Don't just try and twist it
To make myself look like a saint

Keep picking the scabs
So the wounds never heal
I resent what was once my Achilles' heal
Now I'm hardened and hateful
Encased in chainmail
Rigid, dejected, aware
Rattle off scurrility
In attempt to get a rise out of me
But I'm so far beyond that stupid shit
That used to shake me
So keep your gums flapping
To keep me afloat

Devil dealing recreant colluder
You're a snake in the grass
Your agenda with a wicked intent
You're a lion in a sheep skin mask

The time comes now to cast out
The shrill vexatious voice
The time comes now for you to realize
That its my life, my love, my choice

Goodbye
Good riddance
God speed
So long
Farewell
You'll get no more pity from me
When I leave this shitty city
And you're all alone
And your ship has sailed
Fuck you
Good riddance
God speed
So long
Farewell
And you're all alone
