

Illusion Is Now

Days of the New

Illusion is now
Yeah, yeah
Stay man, gotta get high, gotta be low man
Gotta change, no matter where you've been
The plane is flat son, you gotta be grounded for, the world is waving goodbye
The sun is blinding, your walls are getting crushed now
The choices are pastels for you
Your god is down, less is more
I will never fall back down
Illusion is now
So save us all, give me a call, yeah
Illusion is now, your system is down, reality frowns
Illusion is now, so play with the world, make me whole
Illusion is now, illusion is now
Stay man, gotta get high, gotta be low man
Gotta change, no matter where you've been
Your plane is flat son you gotta be grounded for, the world is waving goodbye
The sun is blinding, your walls are getting crushed now
The choices are pastels for you
I said your god is down
I will never fall back down
Illusion is now, so save us all, give me a call, yeah
Illusion is now, your system is down, reality frowns
Illusion is now, play with the world, make me whole
Illusion is now, illusion is now

Yeah, yeah
Get in, ba ba don don
You'll never get stoned
The sky is burning, and the world is
You never fought home

Give it all, the world you ever saved
I cry for you, I thought I'd never change
Civil is not sane
I will never fall back down

Illusion is now, so save us all, give me a call, yeah hey
Illusion, is now, your system is down, reality frowns
Illusion is now, so play with the world, make me whole
Hey, illusion is now, illusion is now
Yeah yeah
