

Limited Eyes

Days of the New

Why do you keep wiping me away?
'Cause I'm a stranger
A stranger to surface that lives on the table-tops
You keep on just wiping me away
'Cause I'm a stranger
Lookin' strange on a strange, strange day

Underneath us is heart
It is the root of all veins
Your kindness will surely follow you
Just can't swallow the pain

Up ahead, in the distance
Comes a world you've never seen
You keep on just crying yourself to sleep
But we know that you can fly
Jumping off those bridges only keeps you high
For the lifetime
Those limited eyes keeps crying, crying
Crying you to sleep

Why do you keep a love from loving you?
Loving is all you gotta let go
And be with us just for a while
You might like this place inside of me
But please don't be alone forever, no
Mine is a home inside of you

Underneath us is heart
It is the root of all veins
Your kindness will surely follow you
Just can't swallow the pain

Up ahead, in the distance
Comes a world you've never seen
You keep on just crying yourself to sleep
But we know that you can fly
Jumping off those bridges only keeps you high
For the lifetime
Those limited eyes keeps crying, crying
Crying you to sleep

But we know that you can fly
Jumping off those bridges only keeps you high
For the lifetime
Those limited eyes keeps crying, crying
Crying you to sleep
