I argue with myself
And I don't even win
It doesn't belong to you
Things don't always go as they plan

I know that this don't feel good Yes, I know that the right thing should

What is the next right thing?
I don't even know for myself
I would know if I didn't have to think about
Where I'm gonna be, gonna be
Where I'm gonna be, gonna be
Cause that's where I'm gonna be
Where I'm gonna be, gonna be

I dug up trenches, dug out holes
Just to get to the other side
Oh I never succeed
All I find, everything I need is
It doesn't belong to you
Things don't always go as they plan

I know that this don't feel good Yes, I know that the right thing should

What is the next right thing?
I don't even know for myself
I would know if I didn't have to think about
Where I'm gonna be, gonna be
Cause that's where I'm gonna be
Where I'm gonna be, gonna be
Cause that's where I'm gonna be
But I try to control things

But I could let go
And witness the flow of some peace
Do-ey do-ey die
Do do do die

And I know that this don't feel good Yes, I know that the right thing should

What is the next right thing?
I don't even know for myself
I would know if I didn't have to think about
Where I'm gonna be, gonna be
Cause that's where I'm gonna be
Where I'm gonna be, gonna be
Yeah that's where I'm gonna be
Yeah

I try to control things
But I could let go
I could let go
I could let go
