

Come Hell Or High Water

Dayseeker

I wake up in my bed soaked in blood and sweat
It's all too real but I know it isn't
This coma is a prison
We used to say come hell or high water
Before the day I was left to be slaughtered
Helpless but hellbent on waking up

We used to say come hell or high water
Asleep for years but no rest
All I can see is darkness

I'm reaching out but it's not enough
Helpless but hellbent on waking up
So I cling and linger like a leech
But the truth is I could see you were starting to hate me

Come hell or high water
But I am drowning in this fire
Come hell or high water
The only truth of a wretched liar

We used to say come hell or high water
Asleep for years but no rest
All I can see is darkness
Living in a nightmare, an eternal black and white vision
This coma is a prison

I'm fixed in place under a spell I cannot break
Who will rescue me?
Who will rescue me?

Carry with me this prison at my side
If there's still a God in the sky, can he breathe life to what' s dead on the outside?
I'm fixed in place under a spell I cannot break
Who will rescue me?
Who will rescue me?
