

Pulling me so far I lead
Pushing everything inside of me
I'm sorry but I've just had enough
Counting calories to calories and
Checked, devour me
No energy I'm just playing bluff

It goes one, two, three, it's not that easy
Your life is on defy
Apologies, they don't mean nothing to me

Take a look at the skyline
Take a look at the skyline tonight
Don't you think how it's falling
But I'm hanging on your halo
Take a look at the skyline
Take a look at the skyline tonight

The coward overpowers me
Dreams become reality
I'm fighting but it doesn't give up
Making poetry from bigotry
Dispatch, deliver me
No exits this is my hell to rust

It goes one, two, three, it's not that easy
Your life is on defy
Apologies, they don't mean nothing to me
To me

Take a look at the skyline
Take a look at the skyline tonight
Don't you think how it's falling
But I'm hanging on your halo
Take a look at the skyline
Take a look at the skyline tonight

Take a look at the skyline
Take a look at the skyline tonight
Don't you think how it's falling
But I'm hanging on your halo
Take a look at the skyline
Take a look at the skyline tonight

Take a look at the skyline
Take a look at the skyline tonight
Don't you think how it's falling
But I'm hanging on your halo
Take a look at the skyline
Take a look at the skyline tonight

Take a look at the skyline
Take a look at the skyline tonight
Don't you think how it's falling
But I'm hanging on your halo
Take a look at the skyline
Take a look at the skyline tonight
