The Reckoning

Dayshell

Would you throw me a bone
Just don't make it obvious
It's the queen that takes the king away

Don't get me wrong
I've herd it all in stereo
I sing this song to fall in love if only for tonight
I'll canon ball into us all then take flight
Before I lose my cool

I can't believe this place I'm stuck on a island
I can't remember who I am

Cut to the chase while I preach your name
All is lost or missing in you

Don't get me wrong
I've herd it all in stereo
I sing this song to fall in love if only for tonight
I'll canon ball into us all then take flight
Before I lose my cool

I can't believe this place I'm stuck on a island
I can't remember who I am

I've seen the reckoning
I am the son so call me fire
It takes two to fuel this flame
I'm falling out of love with you
Take this reason why
I'm falling out of love with you
Take this reason why
I'm falling out of love with you

Change, your onto me
With that chain and ball you seek

Fuck, You want to feed me to the wolves
Don't fucking matter why you shook
You want to feed me to the wolves little honey
Don't fucking matter why you shook

I've seen the reckoning
I am the son so call me fire
It takes two to fuel this flame
I'm falling out of love with you

I've seen the reckoning
I am the son so call me fire
It takes two to fuel this flame
I'm falling out of love with you
Take this reason why
I'm falling out of love with you
Take this reason why
I'm falling out of love with you
