

Chance

DC Talk

People watching, every life a mystery
Sunny faces, but you know the stories incomplete
Satisfaction, seems a million miles away
So I'm moving to another state of mind
I'm believing there's no better place or better time

Everyday we live, there's a chance to give
Every time we speak, there's a chance for peace
Everyday we live, there's a chance

Little sister, put aside your fear and breath
In the secret, do you hear the voice of heaven (sayin')
Come together, hope is stronger than it seems
Where your standing there's no running out on love
Only human, but you've set your eyes on the things above

Everyday we live, there's a chance to give
Every time we speak, there's a chance for peace
Everyday we live, there's a chance

A chance for you, a chance for me
A chance to serve, in a time of need
A chance to live, a chance to tell
A chance to lose yourself (for somebody else)
