

BRAND NEW DRUGS

DC the Don

It's so many red cups on the table
Spilled drinks on the table
Empty bottles on the stairs
And what keeps your lipstick on the mirror?
Handprints on the mirror, pill bottles everywhere
And a pair of heels from a new girl at the party, late night at the party
Text messages from a girl I ain't even speak to like hardly
And she wrote that "I really miss you, I wanna tell you now that I'm sorry"
Sorry

I got a new city view, we should link up and try out
And I bought some brand-new drugs, you should come later and try it out
Just tell me what you want, I got what you need
It's really not a problem for me
You say I'm moving slow, I'll pick up the speed
Running low on air, so how am I to breathe?

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, oh
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, oh

I'm trying to find my head in the page to make time
Baby, if you left, baby, if you left
I'll start a fire, burning my room just to balance my mind
I'll say whatever to be with you
But I really think I should be with you
'Cause you're the only one that know me, that's why I handed you the trophy
I wouldn't want it all if I knew that we was playing games from the nosebleeds

I got a new city view, we should link up and try out
And I got some brand-new drugs, you should come later and try out
Just tell me what you want, I got what you need
It's really not a problem for me
You say I'm moving slow, so I'll pick up the speed
Running low on air, so how am I to breathe?

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, oh
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, oh

I'm trying to find my head in peace to make time
'Cause baby, if you left, baby, if you left
I'll start a fire, burning my room just to balance my mind

I got a new city view, we should link up and try out
And I got some brand new drugs, you should come later and try out

The one's hardest to love, often have the most to give Battle scars from war with your heart, mind, and soul
Have led to the thought of escape, through substance of the unknown
