

HELLO WORLD

DC the Don

Hello
Hello

Could someone tell me how summer became February?
And why this mansion feels like the projects?
I made it out the hood where it's colder than mid-January
Last time you checked I was boarding the plane everywhere
And me and karma, we just had a staring down
How are you, love?
I heard you was checking up on my whereabouts
I worked so hard so my mama could say she's proud of me
And hoping one day this obsession became legendary

Hello, hello, the world I'll say hello
Ruined my shine and painted me yellow
I used to be golden, I used to be golden
Hello, hello, the world I'll say hello
You ruined my shine and painted me yellow
I wish I was golden, I wish I was gold

It's all too hard, go easy on me
Lonely, I don't need anyone, it's all for you
Can't believe it's all for you
Dreams never come true

And yo, speaking of problems, I got a few of 'em
I wish it's certain things, I could whistle back to my new ones
Like watch out for the snakes in the attic, 'cause it's a few of 'em
And watch who you be vulnerable with when you got a loose tongue
And I know you think you love it, but you don't, it's time to move on
The reason you ain't falling in love is because you're too young
That shit gives me nightmares late night
I wish I could turn back the clock hands all the time like

It's all too hard, go easy on me
Lonely, I don't need anyone, it's all for you
Can't believe it's all for you
Dreams never come true

Hello, hello, the world I'll say hello
Ruined my shine and painted me yellow
I used to be golden, I used to be golden
Hello, hello, the world I'll say hello
You ruined my shine and painted me yellow
I wish I was golden, I wish I was gold

It's all so hard, go easy on me
Lonely, I don't need anyone, it's all for you
Can't believe it's all for you

You're my angel, darling
You said, you said
You said, you said
No goodnights
You said, you said
You said, you said
No goodnights

I wish I was golden, I wish I was gold
