

LSD Interlude

DC the Don

Ayy, this is a Trademark Produc...

Is there a reason why we can't be together?

I think there's more to life, you win or lose, something like a
roll of dice, yeah

Is there a reason why we can't be together?

I think there's more to life, you win or lose, something like a
roll of dice, yeah

All my life, I wish to be immortalized

And her love so cold, got me polarized

Trade your heart for something real, I think my soul is dying, yeah

Left me hyperventilating more than twice

And I'm so tired, don't wake me (Yeah)

I'm flying and raising

I need subtitles, maybe

'Cause it's quite hard for me explaining

And my life's fire, LSD

Giving up sliding, don't catch me

And it's cold inside us and lonely

I don't want anything, but you emptying me

Ayy, stupid, young and imperfections

Swear she left me scarred but on the low, it was a blessing

Why you so aggressive?

You make it hard to talk, you know I'm kept in

You said I'm tough to read, teach me a lesson, yeah

Gotta watch my back 'cause demons present, yeah

Think I'm losing my mind, talk to the reverend, yeah

It's clearin' into my time it's not a question, yeah

It's no question, yeah

No stressing, yeah

I'm clearing out my mind, said fuck depression, yeah

These lil' niggas quizzing me, they not testing, yeah

Oh no, no, no, no

Is there a reason why we can't be together?

I think there's more to life, you win or lose, something like a
roll of dice, yeah

Is there a reason why we can't be, oh, oh
