

Overrushed

DC the Don

Baby give me all of your love and all of your heart I need that
I been cut open I wear my sleeves so you want see that
I know you hate me you know I didn't wanna leave fast
But we fucked up cause love cannot be overrushed
Baby give me all of your love and all of your heart I need that
I been cut open I wear my sleeves so you want see that
I know you hate me you know I didn't wanna leave fast
But we fucked up cause love cannot be overrushed

Yea we fucked up cause trust can not be overrushed
And she fucked up I'm riding round in Bentley trucks
And I'm fucked up escape the world when things get rough
You know I'm fucked up yea I'm fucked up aye

Girl you know I'm fucked
Tell them pussy boys they got me fucked up
Aye yea pull up on em like wassup
Take one for the homies gotta pour up

I'm wasting all my time for you, time for you
I told you if you grind for me, I'll shine for you
Fall victim and do crime for you and lie for you
I'm walking to death I can't rely on you

Baby give me all of your love and all of your heart I need that
I been cut open I wear my sleeves so you want see that
I know you hate me you know I didn't wanna leave fast
But we fucked up cause love cannot be overrushed
Baby give me all of your love and all of your heart I need that
I been cut open I wear my sleeves so you want see that
I know you hate me you know I didn't wanna leave fast
But we fucked up cause love cannot be overrushed

But I love that shit
Love it when you call me and you talk your shit
When you
When your off that shit
If heartbreak was a drug then I got high off it
I got these feelings
And I keep them deep inside me
I don't wanna cry my heart out
I don't wanna die in my envy no no

I could never tell you everything I think love
Cause if I did then you would leave my ass on seen love
I hate that everytime we talk it's over screen love
Just pull up give me everything you know I need love

Baby give me all of your love and all of your heart I need that
I been cut open I wear my sleeves so you want see that
I know you hate me you know I didn't wanna leave fast
But we fucked up cause love cannot be overrushed
Baby give me all of your love and all of your heart I need that
I been cut open I wear my sleeves so you want see that
I know you hate me you know I didn't wanna leave fast
But we fucked up cause love cannot be overrushed

Love cannot be overrushed
Yea we fucked up
Love cannot be overrushed
