

REASON

DDG

Yeah

Why she trippin', don't got a reason
We not comin' to no agreement
Every conversation be heated
Our relationship got no meanin'
In your head, you're fightin' demons
You don't know if you're stayin' with me or leavin'
Why you trippin', don't know the reason
You keep playin' with me, you keep teasin'

Sleepin' alone at night
I just hate the times that we fight
Baby, you know I'm right
Now, you want me out of your life
I've been taking drugs, I can't feel myself
If I lose you, I might kill myself
If we talk about it, then it still might help
Baby got that water, I'ma swim, Mike Phelps

Why she trippin', don't got a reason
We not comin' to no agreement
Every conversation be heated
Our relationship got no meanin'
In your head, you're fightin' demons
You don't know if you're stayin' with me or leavin'
Why you trippin', don't know the reason
You keep playin' with me, you keep teasin'

Lookin' for replacements, I can't find one
I cannot believe that you was mine once
Don't know what you got until the time up
You might break your heart, this what you signed up for Need friends around me, I just get so lonely
It hurts more 'cause you just weren't my girlfriend, you was my homie

Why she trippin', don't got a reason
We not comin' to no agreement
Every conversation be heated
Our relationship got no meanin'
In your head, you're fightin' demons
You don't know if you're stayin' with me or leavin'
Why you trippin', don't know the reason
You keep playin' with me, you keep teasin'
