Yeah
I ain't writin' this shit 'cause I'm in my mu'fuckin' feelings, nigga
Yeah

Love you, I just used to love you
Now I wouldn't love touch you or see what you been up to Nowadays it's fuck you, I was tryna fix this shit
You ain't even want to, why the fuck I want you
This shit finna haunt you, all them bitches want me
I ain't gotta fake it, the bitches that you hangin' with ain't like you 'til you made it
When you seen me with another bitch you couldn't take it
A couple other bitches that you with I seen 'em naked
When I sent them roses to yo crib, the shit was cool though
See you at the function next week, with a dude though
I already knew though, it's fuckin' with my mood though
Now I'm in the clubs and I'm lookin' for a new ho
Not a ho, a lowkey girl, still in school though
Could've drove the car to Mexico, but we flew though
Blowin' on this gas and it feel like I'm in Pluto (Pluto)

Stayin' repeatin' I gotta go
Do I still love you?, I never know
If I'm tellin' too much then let me know
But if some shit was done in the dark it gotta show
Stayin' repeatin' I gotta go
Do I still love you?, I never know
If I'm tellin' too much then let me know
But if some shit was done in the dark it gotta show

Young, rich teens, when I met you, you was innocent
Started off great, I was hopin' we could finish it
Love in the air everytime that we got intament
Messaged you on Instagram, I'm thinkin' 'bout unsendin' it
'Member you got pregnant and we rushed up to the clinic
You was scared, but I hadn't been that happy in a minute
Even though we lost a baby, I'm still wonderin' if we didn't
Would we still be together?, probably not, who am I kiddin'
We was toxic, really we was toxic
Our relationship was not shit
Shit was outta pocket
You was playin' games the whole time like a bop it
Can't cry over spilled milk, we gotta mop it
I'm just really datin', prayin' you not hatin'
I wanna see you happy, please don't let that be mistaken
By the time you realize it's no better, I'll be taken
(By the time you realize it's no better, I'll be taken)

Stayin' repeatin' I gotta go
Do I still love you?, I never know
If I'm tellin' too much then let me know
But if some shit was done in the dark it gotta show
Stayin' repeatin' I gotta go
Do I still love you?, I never know
If I'm tellin' too much then let me know
But if some shit was done in the dark it gotta show
