

Trickin'

DDG

(What you thinking, Cris?)

Yeah

How did you fly to Jamaica? I know you didn't pay for that ticket

Over 10K in Bottega, just tell me who money you spendin'

Is this from a nigga you actually like, or is this from a nigga you trickin'?

Matter of fact, you ain't even my woman, so handle your business

s

If you cheatin' on him when you hangin' with me, tell me, how could I trust you?

Baby, I cannot lie, I fuck with your vibe, but I cannot cuff you

You so tired of sex without feelings, you just want a nigga to love you

But these niggas is players

I can have multiple women at once, and won't nobody care

If you got multiple niggas at once, then they call you a ho, it ain't fair

You want the little things, you want the flowers and compliments on your new hair

Damn, when it come to commitment, I start to get scared

Postin' them quotes on your story, I know that you secretly cryin' for help

You need someone to hold you

Goin' outside with your friends will not make you more happy, I told you

Not a regular girl, if you fuck with a lame, then he might expose you

So you finna fuck with the same niggas in the industry

You know that the industry small and these niggas gon' talk, so your options are limiting

I'm in Miami tonight, if you free, come and visit me

You be lookin' so sexy whenever you talk to me, I get distracted from listenin'

Damn, you so thick when you walk, every step that you take, it be jigglin'

Why she so crazy? I don't understand it, I promise I didn't even hit once

The more you get richer, the women get thicker, it get even harder to pick one

Her body is typical, workouts is minimal, she hit the gym just to show it off

Her surgeon be workin', her body be servin', he put her to sleep and start goin' off, huh

If you cheatin' on him when you hangin' with me, tell me, how could I trust you?
