DDG

Lane switchin', they ain't never gon' catch me
Fuck love when I said that she left me
Then I made a list, she wish that she kept me
I don't know you, baby, can you refresh me?
Way richer than the first time you met me
Send the addy if you wanna address me
Internet should've never affect me
If you smart, then you never will test me
VVS, nobody colder than me, richer than the niggas older than me
All bitches bipolar to me, baby like a rollercoaster to me Niggas want to beef with me 'bout a bitch, ain't my fault that she was suckin' my dick
She just want me 'cause she know that I'm lit, I ain't trippin'
'cause I know how I get
I can't trust no ho, they just come and go
R.I.P. my bro, we ain't broke no mo'
