Once upon a time for the minute by the shape of the hour The unify finds divide in the power you

He talk us in and work us way in and devour you whole

We all know the power do

Damsel in distress, she's not

She lay a muzzle in a jigzaw puzzle

Meaning she's a straight shooter

Shooting straight in your vein

Leave your heart all tatted up

Own the blame

She lives by the name of a sexy bitch

The scratch to my itch, touch capability

Angelic lips, devilish hips

Manage to make a sandwich of a power utility

You feeling me?

Ey yo yo, what's up lady? what up?
Come here for me, come here
Oh, you ain't gonna stop for me? Word! Bitch!

- Should have never did that, atleast not to this one
Man that bitch wasn't even trying to holla at me

- It don't work that way, baby
I mean, I look good man. Man that ass fat

- You just can't look so dusty
What?

In my days you gotta be versatile, you knowVersatile, huh? So what do you suggest I do next time, old man?Don't even look, don't waste your time, baby
