

As the World Turns

De-Phazz

(as the world turns)

if this is a dream
then it is a good dream
if this is reality
then it must be paradise
if this move is not a dance (dance)
then this groove must be gravity (gravity)
if this is no miracle
then it must be destiny

as the world turns
(as the world turns)
i think that this story is not in our hands (yeah)
(as the world turns)
the book is written in the language
we had understanding

if this joke (ha, ha)
why is everybody crying
and if it is the truth (if it is the truth)
i hope that everyone is lying (lying, lying)
if love is the question
hate holds the answer
if there's truth beyond suggestion to every music, there's a dancer (hey)

as the world turns
(as the world turns)
i think that this story is not in our hands (yeah)
(as the world turns)
the book is written in the language
we had understanding

hey, yeah
dreamers
that's the meaning

(as the world turns)
if this is a dream
then it is a good dream
(as the world turns)
then this groove must be gravity (gravity)
let it go, yeah
(as the world turns)
