The Mambo Craze

De-Phazz

why, lucy, your eyes are filled with tears?
my heart is strained with bloodness oh look, the orchestra is getting ready dance with me, george!
check the scene outside of medellin make a fuss in caracas mixed guys and dark men at the bars mambo's slow guantanamo was so glad escape in trinidad outside down in kingston town stole a car in the streets of panama went too far in bogota
sp-ce cake brake at the t-ticaca lake got some more in ecuador out for a dance in a dive in puerto prince
went too far in bogota
a little weak, a little pale today looks like it's time, for that certain holiday
a little weak, a little pale today
a little weak, a little pale today rip 'em up sp-ce cake brake on the t-ticaca lake
looks like it's time, for that certain holiday
a little weak, a little pale today
