Drifting Sideways

De/Vision

Fed my eyes on you girl
Dived deep into your world
Watched my life go down the drain
I drew upon myself
For too long now
Feels like I'm not your saviour anymore

Will I float here forever and a day Drifting sideways In a world I'll never understand Will I float here foreyer and a day Drifting sideways I'm dying here like always

Walked the line for you girl
Almost drowned in your realm
Watched myself wasting away
You've been a drag on me for much too long
Feels like I'm not your saviour anymore
