

Bulletproof

Dead by April

I'm standing here without protection
Got no shield
Need no healing
I feel empowered, energized
I'm ready
Devour
Try and bring me down
Come bring me down
I am ready
Let's go

You can see that my heart is still beating strong
In the blood of my enemies I'm crawling alone
I've risen from the ashes
One thousand times before
Because I'm bullet, bulletproof
Bulletproof

Empty-handed
Never lost a fight
Completely undefeated
And you think I am scared?
You won't succeed
You want me dead
But I won't bleed
Try and bring me down
Come bring me down
I'm ready
Devour

You can see that my heart is still beating strong
In the blood of my enemies I'm crawling alone
I've risen from the ashes
One thousand times before
Because I'm bullet, bulletproof
Bulletproof

I look at you
You're the enemy
I'll crush you
I'll do it breathlessly
My choice of words
Is my weaponry
Face the dark
Circle the flames
The only way out is in
In a second you'll stop breathing

You can see that my heart is still beating strong
In the blood of my enemies I'm crawling alone
I've risen from the ashes
One thousand times before
Because I'm bullet, bulletproof
Because I'm bullet, bulletproof
Because I'm bullet, bulletproof
