

Sorry for Everything

Dead by April

Sometimes you've said I didn't listen to your words
That I even made you cry Maybe I didn't show in every possible way how much I cared

I'm sorry for not being myself
For everything
ending this way

Maybe I maybe you could made this change I'm sorry for
for everything
I wish that I could stop your tears from falling down

But unlike me I make it worse

Maybe I wasn't always there But it doesn't mean I don't care

Whatever it was

I'm sorry for not being myself
For everything
ending this way

Maybe I maybe you could made this change I'm sorry for
For everything

We're minutes away from saying goodbye for all of time I'm second away from breaking apart

I'm sorry for
for everything
...I'm sorry for not being myself...

For everything
ending this way
maybe I maybe you could made this change

I'm sorry for
...I'm sorry for everything...
for everything
...for everything...
