

Mr. Dead2U

Dead Eyes

I think I'm losing my mind
Looking for different demons
But problems are all that I find
I'm always picking up pieces

I only ever see the floor
Hit the bottom just to feel some more
I been ducking all the signs
Pretending I never seen 'em
Just one more lie
'Fore I dive off the deep end
Scream until my lungs are sore
I'm a lost cause, nothing more

How'd we go from giving all we had
To nothing but a good thing gone bad?
Used to be the only thing I knew
But now I'm Mr. Dead2U

I've been living out of spite
I need to get a new reason
I think I'm done picking sides
I might be done getting even

After everything you put me through
There's nothing left for us to lose
I been down, I been out
Somehow gonna drown
Out in the deep end
Out in the deep end

How'd we go from giving all we had
To nothing but a good thing gone bad?
Used to be the only thing I knew
But now I'm Mr. Dead2U

Don't even say my name
Stepping on the lines I drew
As far as you're concerned
I'm someone you never knew
Keep my name out your fucking mouth

How'd we go from giving all we had
To nothing but a good thing gone bad?
Used to be the only thing I knew
But now I'm Mr. Dead2U
