

Addicted To Your Heart

Dead Girls Academy

I can't stop running
It's burned in the back of my mind
Constant reflection of my past discretions
Its failure by design

I know what you're thinking
It must be sacrifice
But my past intentions can't mask the perception
That I am far from fine

Take every breath you need
I can hear you haunting me
Turn twitch reality
When no ones around

In the night I hear you calling
I'm on the edge I think I'm falling apart
Can't you see I'm going crazy
In the night I'm addicted to your heart
Addicted to your heart
I'm addicted to your

I can't fight this feeling
Like I deserve to drown
But chasing this ending
When I keep pretending
Seems like a cop out

I feel the vibrations
Like something's coming down
All these emotions
Get lost in devotion
I'm buried in self doubt

Take every breath you need
I can hear you haunting me
Turn twitch reality
When no ones around

In the night I hear you calling
I'm on the edge I think I'm falling apart
Can't you see I'm going crazy
In the night I'm addicted to your heart
Addicted to your heart
I'm addicted to your

I wish she knew
What it feels like falling apart

In the night I hear you calling
I'm on the edge I think I'm falling apart
I think I'm falling apart
I think I'm falling apart

In the night I hear you calling
I'm on the edge I think I'm falling apart
Can't you see I'm going crazy

In the night I'm addicted to your heart
In the night I hear you calling
Addicted to your heart
Addicted to your heart
Can't you see I'm going crazy
Addicted to your heart
