Dead Girls Academy

Look into the mirror, tell me what you see
Do you see the one that you want to be
It's everything, everything
Living in the hills with a bunch of cars
With a different girl hanging on your arm
Every night, every night
That don't mean a thing if you're losing sleep

Tell me what you did when you took control
I'm not crazy
Did you read it through, did you sell your soul
It's everything, everything
'Cause it don't mean a thing

'Cause we're all the same
Just a little bit strange
You're a minute too late
'Cause it's not gonna change
So you might as well live
'Cause the world's gonna end
I'd rather be in hell
Hanging out with my friends
You'll never win
(Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey)
You'll never win

Look into my face, tell me what you see
A little bit of you mixed in with me
It's everything, everything
Looking for a fight that I'll never win
I'm not crazy
Staring down the scope of a loaded pen
Every night, every night
'Cause it don't mean a thing

'Cause we're all the same
Just a little bit strange
You're a minute too late
'Cause it's not gonna change
So you might as well live
'Cause the world's gonna end
I'd rather be in hell
Hanging out with my friends
You'll never win
You'll never win
I'll see you all in hell

You'll never win
You'll never win

'Cause we're all the same
Just a little bit strange
'Cause the world's gonna end
I'd rather be in hell

Hanging out with my friends
It never ends
It never ends
