

Lucky Day

Dead or Alive

There are no rules in a dream
And out of all I've seen
You're the one
You're the only one

I know I might say it wrong
You are the only one for me
So let's be friends
And maybe lovers

Baby, Baby, please be kind
To my heart, baby
It gets easy broken, baby
Can't you see I'm falling, baby
All I've got to say

*This could be you lucky day
This could be you lucky day
This could be you lucky
Lucky, lucky, lucky day

Think about limousines
And all the entrance scenes
You look so good
At my side

And all of my friends
Say I should stay away
But I say no
You're the only one

Baby, baby, can I give you
My heart, baby, it gets easy
Broken, baby, treat it gently
Baby, baby
All I've got to say

This could be you lucky day
This could be you lucky day
This could be you lucky day
This could be you lucky day

*Repeat

I have been waiting so long
For someone so good and so strong
When will I see you again
Tell me tonight's not the end

Baby, baby, can I give you
My heart, baby, treat it gently
I'm falling, baby
All I've got to say

*Repeat

And though I might say it wrong

You are the one for me
So let's be friends
Then maybe lovers

Baby, baby, can I give you
My heart, my heart, treat it gently
Baby, baby, it's been easy
Broken, baby

Repeat

I almost blew it
For myself last night
I almost told you
How I felt last night
Would've scared you
Half to death, now baby

I almost told you
How I felt last night
Scared you half to death, now baby

Scared you half to death, now baby
(Repeat with ad lib)

Repeat

I could've scared you

(Ad lib and fade)
