

Ruin You

Dead Poet Society

You know I am willing to die for
You and I and all that we fight for
You are mine and you are here with me
I know that we are in danger
Fighting strong to fuel the anger
You are wrong and you are in the way
I know I wouldn't move on though
Only you are letting me let go
I'll move on before you try and
I'll move on before you try and

I know
I found you for this
Into the ground you let me down
I noticed you missed me
I can't forgive you let me drown

I feel the temperature risin'
Fire burnin' up in your eyes and
I will fuel the rage until it's time
I know this isn't the answer
Something in it feels so right
And I will soak it in
I know I wouldn't move on though
Only you are letting me let go
I'll move on before you try and
I'll move on before you try and

I know
I found you for this
Into the ground you let me down
I noticed you missed me
I can't forgive you let me drown

Nothing matters at all, we can't be waiting
This is the last time I will say it
Nothing matters at all, we can't be waiting
This is the last time I will say it
Nothing matters at all, we can't be waiting
(Why can't we live the life we wanted)
This is the last time I will say it
Nothing matters at all, we can't be waiting
(Why can't we finish what we had)
This is the last time I will say it
Nothing matters at all, we can't be waiting
(Why can't we live the life we wanted)
This is the last time I will say it
Nothing matters at all, we can't be waiting
(Why can't we finish what we had)
This is the last time I will say it

I know I am willing to die for
You and I and all that we fight for
You are mine and you are here with me
I know that we are in danger
