John Doe

Dead Silence Hides My Cries

Woke up in this place with no memory I can call to mind nothing from my past

I started my life from a blank sheet with nothing in it I dun no who to trust trying to guess are you friend or foe

I keep on searching And i will be seeking For the only truth For the only truth Full of confusion And stuck in delusion I just want to find The truth defined

I wish, I found someone that I knew before I have no grasp, no purpose what to do?

I am trying hard to understand my destination I know that I should do something that will make great sense

Truth (the real truth) is close to me Time (it is time) to seize who I am

I found the answers to my questions I came to save this world from spreading rot and wane

I know my meaning now and I will give a vow To make this world a much better place

I'm done with searching And finished the seeking For the only truth For the only truth No more confusion And free from the delusion I managed to find The truth defined

I know who I am
