

Soul Has A Price

Dead Silence Hides My Cries

God! Damn you all!
Kneel before you will die
Please! Close the door
To your greed and your soul
Where is now
Your sense of life?
You have no value
But you have a price
Where is now
Your sense of life?
Cost of your souls
Is reflects in your eyes
All have the price
In fking life
In fking life
I'm dead inside
Though I'm still alive
I'm still alive
Save
Me now
The hope
Is far
I search faith
I lost my chance
Return
My soul
Sold souls
Lost lives
