

Blue

Dead to Me

This guy comes up to me
I said "who are you?"
He said "I think you know,
I'm blue"

You used to heigh 200 pounds
Now yer skin and bones
Boo Hoooo!

People flood the streets
With their heads on fire
Has that ever happened to you?
Blue?

That's the sound of the ocean
Crashing down on you
Blue
Running through the veins of Memory's remains
She's cursing you

People flood the streets with
Their heads on fire
Has this ever happened to you, blue?
People runnin' scared as their eyes turn black
Has this ever happened to you, blue?
