

Reckless Behavior

Dead to Me

Wait!

Finally we meet face to face, but it's only a reflection and an empty space

Bloody mouth and a bloody brain, so what's it gonna take to just refrain

We're not so different you and me, with your reckless behavior,
With my reckless behavior

You behave reckless, please define selfless, remain stressless

Wait!

We're old and we're getting younger

We only wanted a little more, but nothings gonna get back the night before

Looking out for number one, but you're never gonna stop that morning sun

We're not so different you and me, with your reckless behavior,
With my reckless behavior

You behave reckless, please define selfless, remain stressless

No thorny crown, I earned this frown, I'll show myself the door
I'm at ease with this disease, but am I worse than before?
