

Beautiful Broken Bones

Dead!

La la la, la la la, la la la, la la la
They ain't never gonna catch us now

From the back of the room she walks across
In her eyes you could tell she was lost
She was the one who wasn't supposed to get away
So I said to her "How do you do?
I couldn't help but notice you
You seem to have a burden you carry around"

So this is for the lost, the broken, and the damned
Any time I hold this gun, take my hand
This is for the hearts, that weaken every day
Any time I hold this gun, we'll find our way

You took my hand, led me astray
We moved on to darker days
This city wasn't ready for us to (ready for us to)
When her money came, she whispered to me
"You can't fix everybody
Some people are meant to be beautiful broken bones"

We're star-crossed, look in your eyes
We all fled into the night
They were never gonna let us get away

So scream it out to the world

This is for the lost, the broken, and the damned
Any time I hold this gun, take my hand
This is for their hearts, that weaken every day
Any time I hold this gun, we'll find our way

All we are beautiful broken bones
All we are beautiful broken bones
All we are beautiful broken bones
All we are beautiful broken bones
All we are beautiful broken bones

La (so scream it to the world)
La la la la la
La (so much your heart cries out)
La la, la (we'll put our hands together)
La la la la la la (and send them straight back to hell)
La (we'll be a wave of this noise)
La la la la la, la (now sing it with me boys)
La la la, la la la, la la la, la la la
They ain't never gonna catch us now

So this is for the lost, the broken, and the damned
Any time I hold this gun, take my hand
This is for the hearts, that weaken every day
Any time I hold this gun, we'll find our way

So this is for the lost, the broken, and the damned
Any time I hold this gun, take my hand
This is for the hearts, that weaken every day

Any time I hold this gun, we'll find our way
