Everything.Everything.

Shake!

Oh, well get to the point
That will start off this chain of events
And are you in or are you out?
'Cause I am in without a doubt
'Cause I've been sitting here for days
Counting down the hours
Counting up the ways
That you wrote me off
It's so sad that you are lost...
(It only gets worse!)
Show me how it hurts

What became of all we were
I write these songs just to make it worse
Now we're just shadows of ourselves
What became of all we said
When you're running through his bed
I can't keep my eyes off of you

Oh, what did you say to me
When you said you wanted out?
I said you leave through the backdoor
I said leave through the backdoor
'Cause I've been sitting here for days
Counting down the hours
Counting up the ways
That you wrote me off
It's so sad that you are lost...
(Thoughts of letting go!
This is all we know!)

What became of all we were
I write these songs just to make it worse
Now we're just shadows of ourselves
What became of all we said
When you're running through his bed
I can't keep my eyes off of you

Oh, so it seems to me that in this urgency
We're running out of time, time
Counting down the days till I can make you mine
Now I am looking for an exit
It only gets worse!
Show me how it hurts!
I am looking for an exit!

What became of all we were
I write these songs just to make it worse
Now we're just shadows of ourselves
What became of all we said
When you're running through his bed
I can't keep my eyes off of you

No, I can't make sense
No, I can't make sense

No, I can't make
No, I can't make
No, I can't make sense of you
