

Phantom

Dead!

Okay!

The camera pans 'round
Yeah, we all lose our focus
They came and shot our hands
And then they tried to choke us
Oh, I'll play the game
I'm the king of jokers
And my twilight eyes they won't know why
So, let me feel you (Hey!)
I have so much to say
And if you're there with me
Well I will pave the way
To a pursuit of broken knuckled steel
Represent a time when we had no will

(Oh oh oh oh)
This is the only life we know (oh oh oh oh)
But I don't care for another (oh oh oh oh)
Oh, you say I'll see you around
You won't see me 'cause I, I am a phantom

The gentleman guarding the door
Well they caught up his neck
Marks of a broken jaw
But I won't draw the line
Where the knife starts
Well, it's so hard to find an innocent heart
Down fearful lighted streets
Where the showgirls go
For a smoke out back
After the show
Another dream, brought way down
It's just what happens in these parts of this town

(Oh oh oh oh)
This is the only life we know (oh oh oh oh)
But I don't care for another (oh oh oh oh)
Oh, you say I'll see you around
You won't see me 'cause I, I am a phantom

(Oh oh oh oh)
This is the only life we know (oh oh oh oh)
But I don't care for another (oh oh oh oh)
Oh, you say I'll see you around
You won't see me 'cause I, I am a phantom

So can you hear me now
Amongst this battle crowd?
We won't let them in
But we won't lock them out
Let's go on the road

Don't walk through this city alone
It's not for those free of heart to roam
But neither is any city, apart from one city I know
But I'm not a free heart either, I charge by the day

With a lack of any connection with anyone in any way
But I guess that's the price I pay
To follow what I want and I need to say
And if I'm trapped then I'll crawl
And I'll fight 'till I find what I'm finally doing all this for Anyway

(Oh oh oh oh)
This is the only life we know (oh oh oh oh)
But I don't care for another (oh oh oh oh)
Oh, you say I'll see you around
You won't see me 'cause I, I am a phantom

Quaking for this one

(Oh oh oh oh)
This is the only life we know (oh oh oh oh)
But I don't care for another (oh oh oh oh)
Oh, you say I'll see you around
You won't see me 'cause I, I am a phantom

Oh
We are in time
For the night's recall
Alive, alive
So can you hear me now
Amongst this battle crowd?
We won't let them in
But we won't lock them out
Let's go on the road

Yeah
