

Crushed

Deadlands

Angry, depressed
A motherfucking mess
And I know that I can't get it out of my head
The one thing I want just to end it is
You get a taste of my revenge
You get a taste of my revenge
Now there's no excuses

You build me up then wreck me
Another monster I can't face
You hate the ending story
Until then you love the chase

You wanna see me
Crushed
Down
Broken into pieces on the Ground
How you'll never see me fall
Conditioned me to bow
Look who's laughing now
I just know you wanna see me
Crushed
Down
Look who's laughing now

I'm done being seen as a motherfucking pawn
You use and abuse me to get what you want
I'm done being burned and a game that you play
I'm so fucking sick
I'll do it my way
We'll do it my way
The predator is now the prey
Enough is enough
Now you're the one who's fucking crushed

You'll never be forgiven
It's very rare that I forget
You're out of ammunition
You'll always be my one regret
My one regret
I'll never bow to you again

You wanna see me
Crushed
Down
Broken into pieces on the Ground
How you'll never see me fall
Conditioned me to bow
Crushed
Down

Go

You wanna see me

You wanna see me
Crushed
Down
Ground
I just know I get to see you
Crushed
Down
