

Die In Paradise

Deadlands

I'm blinded
By diamonds
I'll die in paradise

Hollow eyes in a gilded tomb
Nothing left for me to consume
All but avarice never blooms
More flash, more glitz, more glamour
Who cares about the sound of the rapture
And I won't take what I can get because I could have it all

I'm blinded
By diamonds
I'll die in paradise
Bad habits
Gold caskets
I'll shine in my demise
I don't care
What it takes
I want every single thing
Real vices
All priceless
I'll die in paradise

The more I gain then the more I crave
Jaded thoughts are all that remain
I have everything to exploit your heartbreak
I'm numb to the pain of every day
Buy what's gonna pave the next escape
I'll be temporarily saved
Cause it's all a waste

I'm blinded
By diamonds
I'll die in paradise
Bad habits
Gold caskets
I'll shine in my demise
I don't care
What it takes
I want every single thing
Real vices
All priceless
I'll die in paradise

I bare the unholy fire
Stripped
Of opulence
How
Could you take my desires
My worths gone in vain

I'm blinded
By diamonds
I'll die in paradise
Six feet deep
Incomplete

I 'm never satisfied

I don't care
What it takes
I want every single thing
Real vices
All priceless
I 'll die in paradise
