

Adorned in Thorns

Deadstar Assembly

Raise up your fist
Keep 'em high for the prophecy
Our sub religious quest
It's something you can't take away
A brotherhood a union
Of spike laden treachery

It's worn it's leather torn
This is our overture to fury
It's alive and feeding our fire
Electrified unrelenting desire

Hey
We raise our flag
The badge is worn
We fight for our truth and no other
We raise our flag
Now you've been warned
Undying defying
Adorned in thorns

Deities of damage
Unsung with malevolence
Into an underworld
Ordained disdain and havoc
We pledge allegiance
Leading us to the victory

It's worn it's leather torn
This is our overture to fury
It's alive and feeding our fire
Electrified unrelenting desire

Hey
We raise our flag
The badge is worn
We fight for our truth and no other
We raise our flag
Now you've been warned
Undying defying
Adorned in thorns
