

Arm and a Leg

Deadstar Assembly

Surviving so we can kill
A waging of war induced by
The serpents tongue
Spewing the brightest black
Overshadowed into the delusion
Unsaved attack

What's the price you'd pay
For the spoon fed insanity
At any cost your god a fraud
It's the price you pay
An arm and a leg

Closing eyes now lead the blind
Marching over the edge in defense of
A hopeless cause it's suspect
It's fleeced and flawed
When progress is just an illusion
And blood stained

What's the price you'd pay
For the spoon fed insanity
At any cost your god a fraud
It's the price you pay
An arm and a leg

Surviving so we can kill
A waging of war induced by
The serpents tongue
Spewing the brightest black
Overshadowed into the delusion
Unsaved attack

What's the price you'd pay
For the spoon fed insanity
At any cost your god a fraud
It's the price you pay
An arm and a leg
