

We are the black cloud that will run you down
Think twice as you fail to your own device
Armed to the teeth we won't accept defeat
Unaborted mistake that you fuckin' hate
Fist fuck juggernaut and we're all for naught
Every word in this song meant to do harm
Support system doesn't exist
The perfect prescription is a fist

Revolution
We're rising up stronger than before
The solution
What's sacred now burns this is war
You offered us nothing now reap the harm, yeah
Revolution
Are you ready?
Bear your coat of arms
Are you ready?
Bear your coat of arms
Bear your coat of arms

Adorned in thorns time to be reborn
Time to leave the pain time to shed the scorn
This anarchy left for you and me
Cut down to size through gods eyes
We are the blacklist and we've been dismissed
Left to rot in a cage forced to be your slave
Support system doesn't exist
The perfect prescription is a fist

Revolution
We're rising up stronger than before
The solution
What's sacred now burns this is war
You offered us nothing now reap the harm, yeah
Revolution
Are you ready?
Bear your coat of arms
Are you ready?
Bear your coat of arms
Bear your coat of arms
